THE UNIVERSITY

Central University of Punjab is one of the fastest growing next generation universities in the country. It offers some of the best and innovative academic programmes designed in tune with the challenges of present time.

University's beautifully landscaped ecofriendly green campus has state of the art facilities for learning and research including fully automated Central Library with large collection of books and subscriptions to top international and national journals, air conditioned class rooms with latest visual aids, modern Computer Centre with 100 nodes and 1 Gigabyte internet connectivity, well maintained hostels for boys and girls with reading rooms and computing facility with internet access, health centre, fitness centre with modern equipments and well equipped Language Laboratory.

University provides scholarships of ₹3000 and ₹5000 during M.Phil. and Ph.D. phase, respectively. University seminar series featuring invited talks by eminent writers and scholars from across the world in all disciplines helps expanding the horizons of knowledge.

CENTRE FOR COMPARATIVE LITERATURE

Centre for Comparative Literature, under the School of Languages, Literature and Culture, incorporates a wide range of literature under its purview, an approach which is highly conducive for today's multi-lingual, multi-cultural globalized world. Comparative literature as a discipline has emerged in an attempt to negotiate the boundaries and initiate dialogue between different languages, literatures, cultures and countries. Centre for Comparative literature strives to take note of marginalized identities, languages and cultures through an interdisciplinary and broad all-inclusive approach.

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE ADVANTAGE

Courses in Comparative Literature prepare the students for reading and research in languages and literatures across cultural and geographical boundaries while being dedicated to critical and theoretical analysis. This type of analysis enlarges the field of literature to embrace a wide variety of cultural practices thereby preparing the students for successful careers in diverse fields including academics, media, publishing, administration and non-governmental organizations.
